All students undertaking a thesis involving the use of human subjects in any way as a source of data must first receive clearance from the Institutional Review Board on Human Subjects (IRB). The proper form for requesting clearance can be obtained from the Office of Research and Academic Grants (Admin. 310). The student should not proceed to collect data until clearance is received.

The Major Professor should answer the applicable question(s) below:

1. Will this research use human subjects as a source of data?
Yes _____ No _____
2. If yes to #1, has the student filed the "Use of Human Objects" request form in the office of Research and Academic Grants?
3. Yes _____ No _____

Note: If NO to #2, the student should not proceed to collect data until the form is filed and the IRB grants clearance.
