The Bruzzy Westheimer Graduate Fellowship in Human Security

This fellowship will be awarded to a full time UNT Graduate student pursuing research and/or scholarly activities related to Human Security. Graduate students with majors housed in CLASS (College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences) will be given first priority. Awardee must commit to graduate studies on a full-time bases and may not work more than 20 hours a week. Applicant is required to submit (1) information on publications, research, scholarly presentations or serving as a teaching assistant, research assistant, or teaching fellow related to issues related to human security; (2) minimum of two letters of recommendation attesting to integrity and professional/academic potential of the applicant in the area of Human Security; (3) two page essay describing work in Human Security.