

THE RODEHEAVER SCHOLARSHIP FOR RETURNED PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS

The purpose of this scholarship is to provide scholarship assistance to Returned Peace Corp Volunteers (RPCVs) to pursue either a Master's or Doctorate degree at the University of North Texas.

To be eligible for consideration, an applicant for this scholarship must meet the following criteria:

1. Be a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer (RPCV), who officially has been Cleared of Service (C.O.S.). The application process requires the submission of a copy of the applicant's C.O.S., as well as a copy of one's Description of Service (D.O.S.);
2. Meet the minimum entrance requirements and continuing academic performance standards of the University's Graduate School and the respective graduate program at the time of the award;
3. Maintain full-time enrollment at the University of North Texas, unless the RPCV is nearing completion of their degree program and does not need full-time enrollment;
4. Preference will be given to full-time graduate students who demonstrate an academic research interest in one of the following areas;
 - a) Sociology (especially with an emphasis on Environmental Sociology and/or the Sociology of Development and Social Change), or
 - b) Environment-related sciences (social and/or physical environments), or
 - c) Community and/or international development related programs, or
 - d) Any fields related to the environment or the community; and
5. Be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States (as defined by the United States Peace Corps for eligibility and qualification for service).

The College of Arts and Sciences is responsible for administering the application and scholarship process. Contact the Dean's Office (GAB 210) for more information.
